SOCIAL and PERSONAL

A naffair of much social interest just now, particularly to the debutantes who will be special guests of honor in several boxes, is the track meet to be held next saturday night, February 27, in the Horse Show Building by the Richmond College Athletic Association. All of the fraternities will entertain, the Sigma Phi Epsilon, having engaged four boxes for their large party, while the Kappa Alphas and Phi Gamma Deltas have arranged for two.

Altogether the meet in prospect promises to be an important event in society.

Monday, February 22, witnessed a ratriotic act of remembrance of the ratriotic act of remembrance of r

English—Collie.

The wedding of Miss Emma Collie to Edgar B, English, son of Robert E, English, and member of the Richmond bar, was celebrated at 11:30 yesterday morning in Sacred Heart Cathedral, the Rev. J. B.,O'Reilly officiating. Mr. and Mrs. English left by the moon train for a Northern wedding tour. They

To the woman away from home, a cake of Ivory Soap is a veritable boon.

With it, she can wash gloves, handkerchiefs, belts, underwaists, and the pretty shirt-waists in which most women look their best.

More than that; she is independent of laundress and cleaner-to the benefit of her pocket-book and the longer life of the things she wears.

Ivory Soap 99 4950 Per Cent. Pure.

ITCHING SEEMED TO BE INCURABLE

Terrible Red Patches on Face and Arms Made Victim Ashamed to be Seen - Suffered Intensely for Ten Months — Expert Treatment Gave No Relief — Two Sets of the Daughters Celebrate.

Daughters Celebrate.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., February 23.—The Castern Shore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, celebrated Washington's birthday by a reception this afternoon from 3 to 5 at "Melrose," the handsome home of Mrs. K.
L. Shield. The parlors were decorated with flags and bunting, and pictures of Washington were prominent.
The receiving party consisted of Mrs. Shield. Mrs. B. K. Powell, Mrs.
Minnie Gibh Sharpley and Mrs. William J. Doughty. Mrs. Sharpley, a great-granddaughter of Colonel Croffer, whom Washington appointed commander of the froops in the Eastern District of Virginia, then composed of twenty-two Tidewater counties, read a paper on the life of Washington,
Among those present were: Mrs.
John Shepherd, or Denver, Col.; Mrs.
J. G. Sharpley, of Horntown, Va.
Miss M. Louise Trader, Oak Hall, Va.
Mrs. W. P. Powell, Alredele, Md.; Ars.
T. S. Hopkins, Tasley; Mesdames M.
Baywell, W. P. Bell, T. H. Payly
Browne, Edgar Fletcher, Accomac.
J. L. Parker, J. C. Cornick, L. E.
Fletcher, Robert P. Taylor, John S.
Maples, Wilson Rhodes, O. L. Powell,
E. T. Waters, E. O. F. Custis, Mary
Barslow, C. B. Nottingham; Misses S.
A. Langsdale, Ceell and Neille Powel, Netlie Parker, Nettie Warren,
Virnetta Northam, Blanche N. Joynes,
Mamie E. Fosque, Frances L. Taylor, of Onancock.

Brilliant Germin.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISA., VA., February 23.—A brilliant Washington anniversary germac was given by the young people of Louisa in the Town Hall hers Mondanight. The chaperons were Mrs. A. T.

EMINENT SURGEON DIES

Gibson—Jarvis.

WASHINGTON D. C., February 23.—
The marriage of Miss Grace McMillan
Jarvis and Preston Gibcon took place this afternoon, and was followed by a reception at 4 o'clock at the McMillan residence, on Vermont Avenue. The bride is the daughter of the late Willlam Jarvis, of Detroit. Her mother was the elder daughter of the late Senator McMillan, of Michigan. The bride of to-Jay was reared by her grandmother, in whose home she made her debut over a year ago, and from which she will leave this evening with her husband. Air, Gibcon is the son of the

Beneath Good

Bread is

Good Luck

Baking Powder.

Every housekeeper has a keen and commendable pride in her bread, biscuit, cake

and other dainties that tempt

the appetite and build brain and muscle for the members of her family.

The food satisfaction—this absolute certainty of tasty and healthful food is a very simple and easy matter if you use "Good Luck" Baking Fowder,

The Southern

Manufacturing

Company RICHMOND, VA.

the crypat of this subcombined by the company of th

ANTI-TRUST LAW IS BEING URGED

Bills Come Up in Senate, and Arguments Are Waxing Warm.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., February 23.—The Schate discussion of anti-trust legislation, "teeth" and no "teeth," or rather what character of "teeth," shall be

You Owe It to Your Children to Use Pure Food.

Dunlop

